

Concrete Division

Customer Service Policy

Our customers are the most important people in our business. We will endeavour to satisfy their present and future requirements in respect of product quality, availability, supply and delivery. We will do this consistently - all the time. Our customers will encounter friendly, effective and efficient service in every aspect of their dealing with us. The entire company will strive for continuous improvement in the service we provide.

We intend to be recognised as providing

The Best Service in the Industry

Paul Stevenson

Managing Director